ANNEXATION OF HAWAII

AN IMPORTANT DOCUMENT IS UNEARTHED.

A Brief on the Subject Prepared by John Dean Caton of Illinois for Secretary Gresham.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The most important document in the Hawaiian annexation series which has yet appeared was offered in the Senate today by Senator Frye. It is a brief prepared for former Secretary of State Gresham, in 1894, and is practically an answer to the article by Judge Cooley opposing annexation. The brief was written by John Dean Caton, ex-chief justice of the State of Illinois, and is a thorough document. Under the heads of "Constitutional Right to Annex," "Desirability of Islands" and "Construction of Rules of National Ethics," points of law and fact are carefully argued. The document will form the basis of an argument by Senator Frye, to whom it was sent by a son of Judge Gresham, it having been found in the late Secretary's papers.

The preparation of this brief was probably one of the last pieces of work upon which Judge Caton was ever engaged, as he died during the summer of 1895. A man of great wealth, he was not only a profound lawyer, but a deep student. On the Archaeology and Ethnology of the North American Indian, he was an authority. And subjects kindred to that appealed to his tastes. He was a Justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois for many years, and after retiring from the bench devoted himself largely to the study of special branches of the law.
He was engaged as counsel in many of the most important public matters in Illinois.

It was not unnatural that Secretary Gresham should select him for this work. They were warm friends, and Caton's environments and characteristics were such that he would bring to the work great learning, thoroughness and independence of mind.

recommend it to others." Mrs. S. A.

A New Fraud Exposed.

New York City, March 21.—Wheel stripping is the brief term used to designate the latest fraud on the manufacturer and the public that is known to lie at the door of the big ent rate retail bicycle dealers and is suspected of the department stores in this city. This latest form of double acting imposition consists in stripping bicycles of the standard tires, saddles and pedals that have been sold with them to the retailer and which carry with them an added value to the wheel, substituting a cheaper equipment and selling the standard "strippings" at cut rates.
